

Technical Projectmanager (m/f/d)

Location Hanau

Permanent

Full-Time/ Part-Time

The following challenges await you:

- › Technical projectmanagement over different involved sites.
- › Develop and drive production and process roadmap for following topics: COGS, process improvements, ramp up management, Changes, Digitalization.
- › Foster cross-collaboration for all above mentioned topics within the related sites.
- › Establish "Knowledge Management Process"
- › Perform "Fast reaction programmes" by demand
- › Development of technology roadmap and future next steps

Your profile:

- › Master degree in Business or or a comparable field
- › More than 5 years experience with disciplinary leadership on international teams.
- › Cultural experience in Asia is an advantage
- › Six Sigma education appreciated
- › Experience in the electronic industry is appreciated
- › Technical project management education
- › Communicative teamplayer with willingness to drive for changes and results
- › Excellent English and German skills in speaking and writing

Benefits:

- › Additional benefits - public transport allowance, discounts in many (online) stores, company medical service with comprehensive preventive medical checkups and sports offers
- › Individual development - comprehensive development opportunities and support through training opportunities and internal programs
- › Sustainability as part of the corporate strategy - targeted support for initiatives in the areas of education, family and science through our own foundation

OPEN SPACE. FOR OPEN MINDS.

